The Chilhowean

EXPOSES

that OLE Maryville SPIRIT

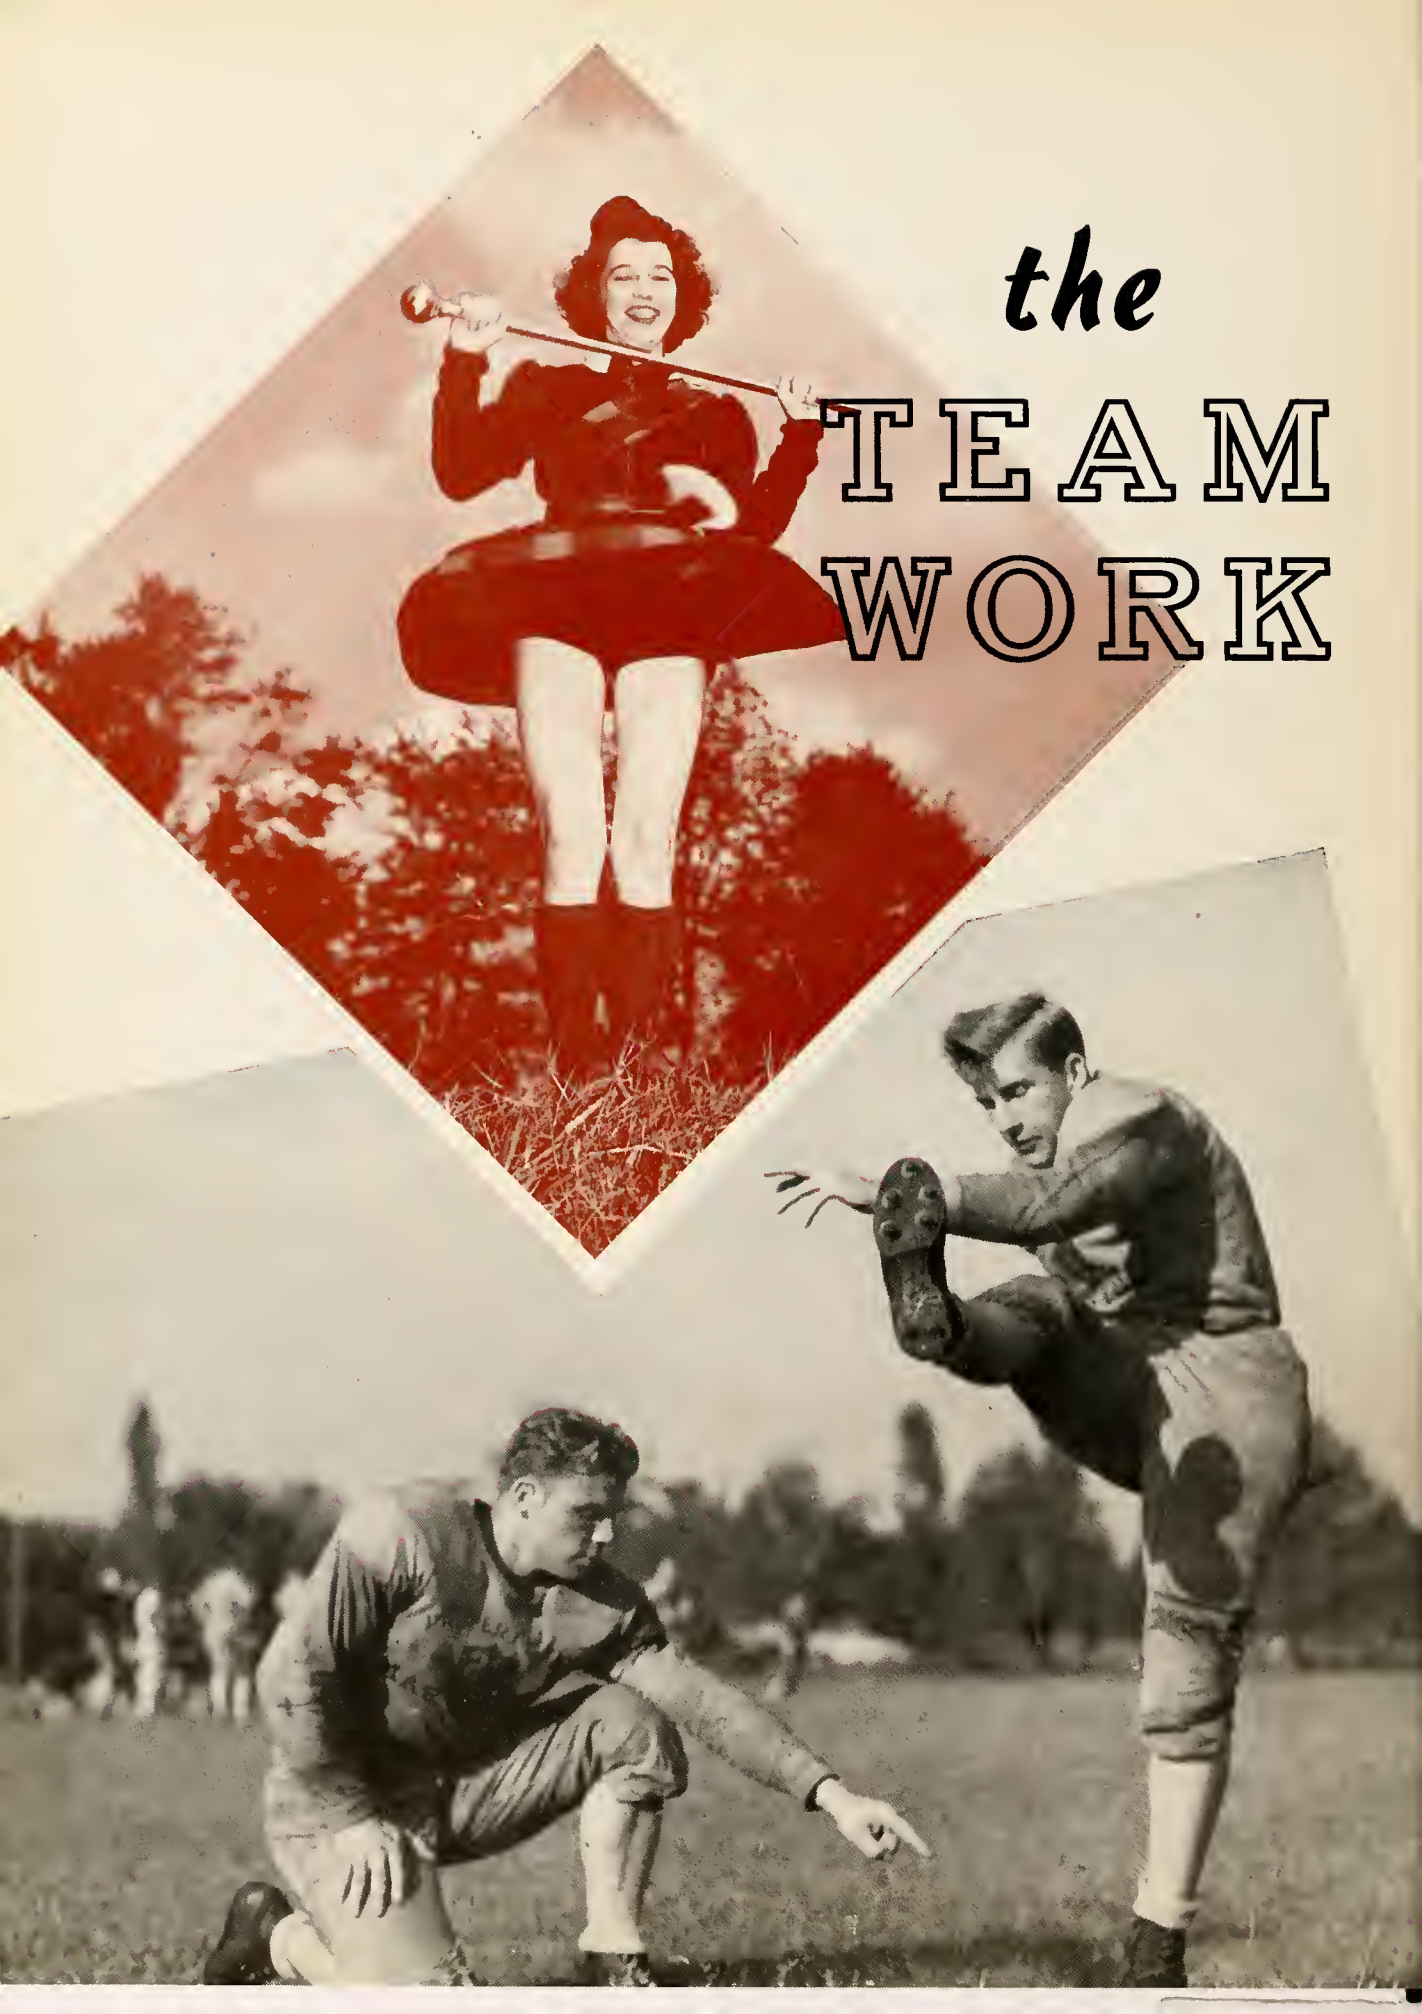
That spirit, elusive and indescribable, which takes hold of us the first time we climb the Steps or cross the Corduroy and which remains with us throughout life. It is this spirit which stimulates cooperation in work and play, unites our efforts and desires, and creates close and lasting friendships.



the TEAM WORK

A long touchdown march by the eleven, a wildly cheering crowd of students in the bleachers, the twirlers strutting their stuff —these are the Maryville teamwork. And yet our teamwork is more than this; it's . . . well, we at Maryville can pull together!

Everywhere on the Hill, friendliness and fun are close by. Smiling faces are in abundance, warm and hearty friendships hold full sway, laughter accompanies our picnics. This deep-rooted geniality overshadows our disappointments and failures, and makes our years at Maryville an unforgettable experience.

Friendliness and FUN

Classes and Labs

All of us, from the smuggest D. A. R. to the lowliest bonehead, works—more or less—in pursuit of the higher education. And yet we feel that we have not been altogether unmindful of the opportunities afforded us. Every one of us will retain some fond memory of that class, whether it be of the blond who sat next to us or of the professor's funny bow ties.

BROTHERS

Dating, the great American pastime, more than held its own at Maryville this year. In fact, Pearsons, Baldwin, and Memorial seem to have been about the most popular spots on the campus!

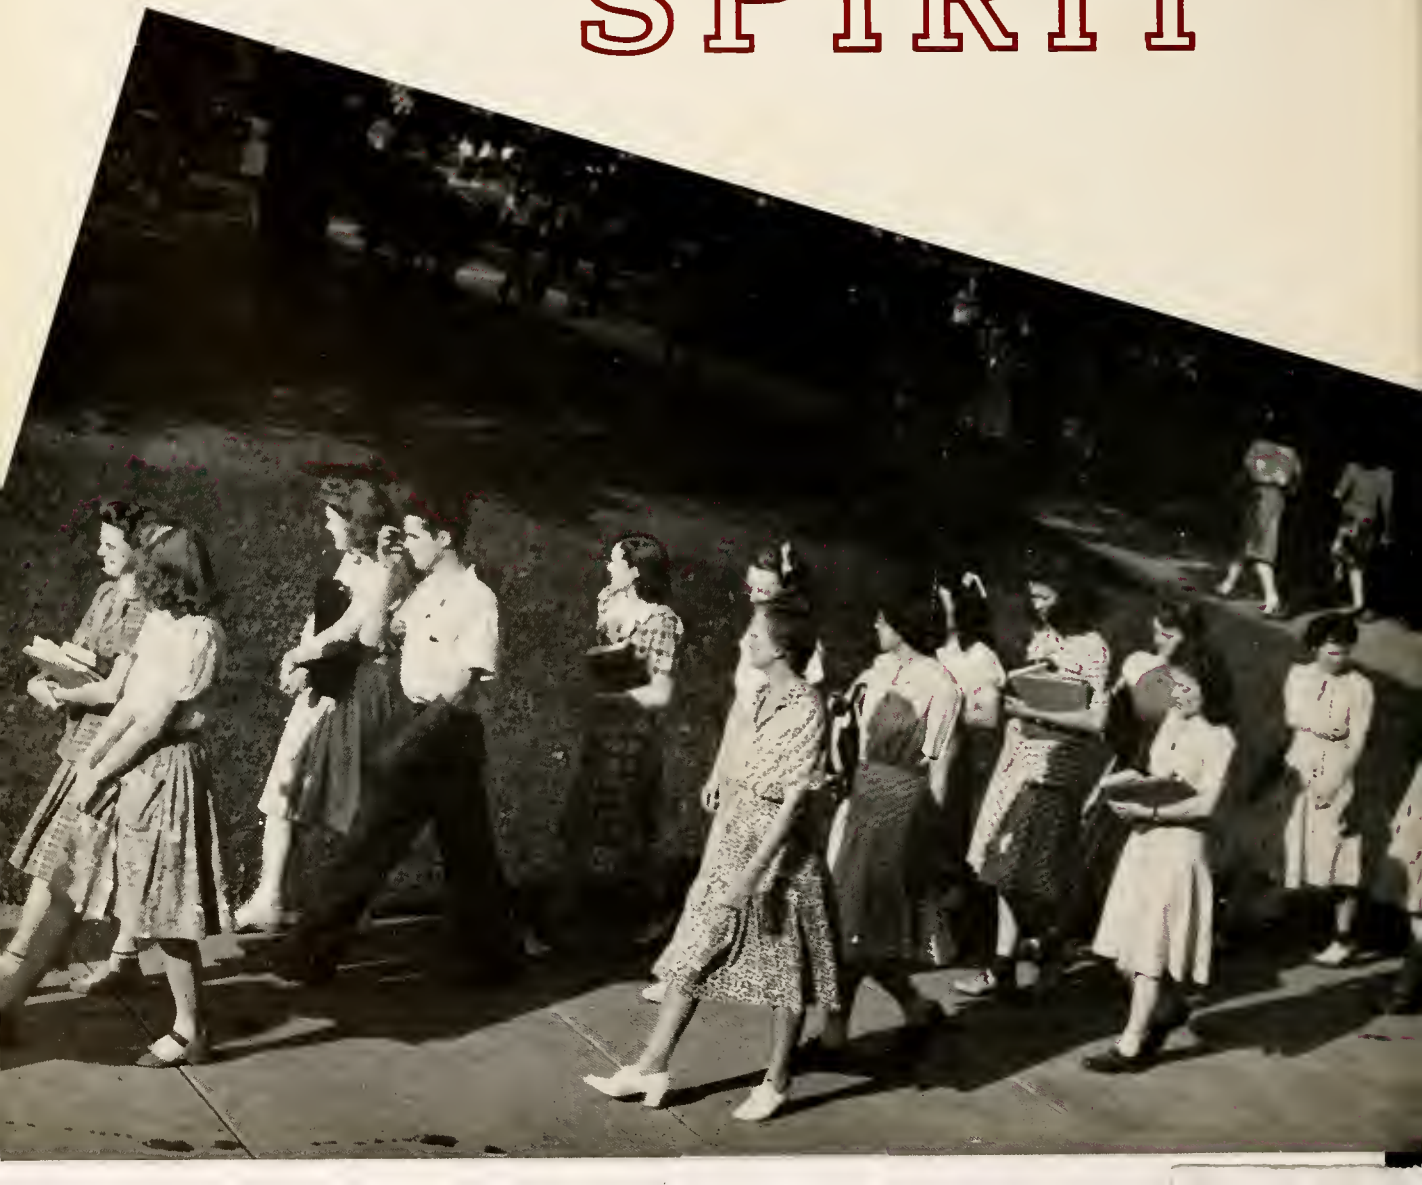
Carrying the SPIRIT



far afield

Into many corners of many lands the Maryville spirit reaches. Every time the big team takes the road, every time an order of uniforms is sent from the Maid Shop to Australia or Hawaii, every time another class is added to the thousands of alumnae already graduated—that many times is our spirit carried afield.

We Pause to Remember those men of Maryville who will never see this book, those men who have fought and given their lives in the great struggle for freedom—who have died that we might spend this year on the Hill. Realizing that the tribute we pay these heroes in so doing is pitifully insignificant when compared to the magnitude of their sacrifice, but in the conviction that they have not died in vain, we dedicate this 1943 Chilhowean to them.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

DR. RALPH WALDO LLOYD
President of Maryville College

PRESIDENT

Ralph Waldo Lloyd, B.A., B.D., D.D., LL.D., has served as president of Maryville College for the past twelve years. Dr. Lloyd, highly regarded in religious and educational circles throughout America, has done much for the improvement of the College. A magnetic speaker, he possesses a pleasing personality, a keen sense of humor, and untiring energy. He is a real friend of every Maryville student, and commands the respect of all.

PRESIDENT EMERITUS

Samuel Tyndale Wilson, B.A., M.A., D.D., LL.D., Litt.D., has been connected with Maryville College as student, professor, President, and President Emeritus since 1873. Although no longer active in collegiate affairs, his service is still a moving spirit and an inspirational guidance to the College. Undoubtedly a most revered figure, Dr. Wilson has contributed more to the cause of Christian education than any other single figure in the long history of Maryville College.

Following his graduation from Maryville College in 1878, Dr. Wilson spent two years in the mission field. In 1884, he was called to the College to teach, and from that time on has been closely associated with this institution.

ARTHUR BUSHING . . . . President

EDITH MONROE . . . Vice-President

JANE GLASS . . . . . Secretary

CLYDE BROWN . . . . . Treasurer

Elected last Spring to be president of the class of 1943, Arthur Bushing is an English major from Jamestown, Tennessee. Art, a four year honor roll student, has rendered outstanding service this year as leader of his class. He is also a member of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet, and has in the past been active in the Writers' Workshop and on the social committee.

Edith Monroe, whose home is in Maryville, is also an English major. She participated in intercollegiate debate for two years, is a member of Writers' Workshop, and secretary to the Dean of Curriculum.

Secretary Jane Glass is a French major, hailing from Norwood, Pennsylvania. In addition to her outstanding work as class secretary, Jane is a member of the Student Vol Cabinet, the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, and is president of Bainonian.

Clyde Brown, treasurer of the class, is president of the college Y. M. C. A. Clyde is an honor roll student whose home is in East Waterford, Pennsylvania, and is a history major.

Ten members of the class were elected this year to membership in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and many other members of the class have won honors in athletics, forensics, dramatics, and scholastic endeavor.

This is the first Maryville College class to be affected by the war-time accelerated program, and thirty-six members were graduated at the December commencement. In line with the war effort, the class of 1943 has consistently led the school in the War Stamp campaign. But this contribution is small in comparison to that which will be made as members of the class go out and find their places in the nation and its activity.

OFFICERS

HAL LLOYD . . . . . President
LOIS JEANNE HOWARTH . . . . . Vice-President
MARY EVELYN WAISMAN . . . . . Secretary
WILLIAM EVANS . . . . . Treasurer

The present Junior Class, the class of 1944, has elected for its officers four students who have been outstanding as individuals and who have also proved to be faithful and capable in the performance of their official duties.

President Hal Lloyd, from Tennessee, possesses a fine balance of scholastic ability, athletic prowess, and extra-curricular interest which have won for him election to "Who's Who." Hal is an English major who pastimes in debate, tennis, and intramural athletics.

Pat Howarth, alias Lois Jeanne Howarth, is class vice-president. Pat is a very popular home economics major hailing from Ambridge, Pennsylvania.

Class secretary Mary Evelyn Waisman is from Knoxville, Tennessee, and may be found from time to time in Dr. Briggs' psychology laboratory. "Shorty" is also active in Y. W. C. A. work.

In addition to serving as class treasurer, Bill Evans participates in varsity debate, intramural athletics, and roots for the St. Louis Cardinals. Bill is an economic student.

NU GAMMA SIGMA

Newness in Thought
Usefulness in Service

Growth, both Spiritual and Social Appreciation of Beauty and Truth
Mental Alertness
Mastery of Problems
Attitudes of Worth

Nu Gamma Sigma was organized by the Y. W. C. A., formed on the principles expressed in the above motto. The purpose of Nu Gamma is the development of firm college friendships and the cultivation of steadfast character.

Each leader writes to ten new girls during the summer, and introduces her group of new students to upperclass girls and college activities when the school term begins.

The four Sunday afternoon meetings are indeed events to be remembered, for they are times when ideas are exchanged and common problems are discussed; the hikes, candy pulls, and Nu Gamma breakfast serve to further introduce new girls to Maryville College life.

"Go Ye Into All

The World"

The purpose of the Student Volunteer Movement at Maryville has been to awaken and maintain among the students an intelligent and active interest in missions. In this interdepending world, we believe our Christian faith should and will have a part in building the world anew.

Since 1900, the Ministerial Association has served the men of the college who are preparing themselves for full-time Christian service. The activities of the members include leadership in many of the missions and churches in and near Maryville, joint responsibility for the regular mid-week services on the Hill, and full sponsorship of the mid-day meetings during Holy Week. As an organization devoted to our Saviour's work, it strives to attain an active manifestation of its motto: "Not to be ministered unto, but to minister." (Matt. 20:28.)

FEBRUARY MEETINGS

The February Meetings held February 3-11, 1943, constituted the sixty-seventh series since their inauguration in 1877. The high level of interest and spiritual earnestness established in other years was maintained. Morning and night each day the Chapel was filled. The thoughts and attention of students and faculty were focused on things of the spirit. The life of the College was enriched, and many commitments to the Christian life were made.

Rev. William M. Elliott, Jr., Ph.D., D.D., Pastor of the Druid Hills Presbyterian Church, Atlanta, leader of the Meetings, won everybody by his clear, impressive, spiritual presentation of the truths, requirements, and rewards of the Christian life. His speaking ability, sincerity, and thought were all that could be desired. His friendly and wise counsel in personal conferences and in forum groups had great influence for good. No speaker could receive a more attentive hearing or a more genuine response.

Rev. Sidney E. Stringham, D.D., Pastor of the Shaw Avenue Methodist Church, St. Louis, was the song leader for the twenty-first time. The warm welcome given him as he has returned year after year is eloquent testimony to the quality and helpfulness of his service. It is a noteworthy fact that he has led the singing in almost one-third of all the February Meetings since their beginning. It was good to have him back on the Hill again this year.

Bainonian opened the year with an unusually attractive rush week, and maintained throughout both semesters the high position it has held in campus life since its founding in 1874.

The Allied Nations were the theme of rush week, and new girls were entertained with a "Ship-Board Tea" in the Y. W. C. A. rooms, a military expedition (picnic) to the College woods, and the formal opening presented in the Allied Nations ballroom on September 18. At the close of the week, many new girls "enlisted" in Bainonian.

This year's dramatic production, given in cooperation with the Athenian Society, was "Lost Horizon," staged in the Chapel on January 29. It was acclaimed a rousing success by all present.

The weekly Saturday evening meetings of Bainonian were consistently well-attended, as were the occasional joint meetings with Athenian. All of the programs were entertaining and interesting. Athenian-Bainonian presented a party for the student body on February 27, in cooperation with the social committee.

Bainonian maintained this year her deep friendship among members, a strong loyalty to the college, and the outstanding qualities of courage and leadership which make the members always loyal to their society.

Athenian, the oldest society on the Hill, began a progressive year with its annual presentation of an original skit to the men of the College at the Y. M. C. A. Pow-Wow in the College Woods. New men seemed to be duly impressed, for a number of them pledged Athenian at the opening meetings of the semester.

Throughout the year, Athenian continued to uphold its high standard which has won high honors for the society in athletics, forensics, dramatics, and other activities, since its founding in 1869.

Beginning the race for the championship of the Club League of the College Intramural Department, Athenian captured the six-man football title with a powerful squad. Championships followed in speedball and volley ball, entering Athenian once more as a strong threat for the gold plaque awarded each year to the best society team.

"Lost Horizon" was this year's annual mid-winter play, and was given on January 29 in cooperation with Bainonian. The production compared in every way with Athenian's previous stage successes.

The annual "Girl I Left Behind Me" contest, a stag banquet, and a school party were other features of Athenian's well-rounded program for the year.

Theta Epsilon opened the year with a rush week based on the theme, "Allied Nations." A whirl of gay parties picnics, and entertainments, climaxed by a gala formal opening, were presented for the new girls in school.

Throughout the year Theta engaged in many social events, presented popular programs each Saturday night, and joined in meetings occasionally with Alpha Sigma and also with Bainonian societies.

The dramatic production for the year was presented on March 19, and was a comedy—"Arsenic and Old Lace." Directed by Mrs. Nita E. West, the play compared favorably with any presented in the past.

On February 20, Theta joined with Alpha Sig in the presentation of a radio party for the student body. A large crowd in the chapel thoroughly enjoyed the program.

This year's activities will soon be memories, but as each Theta girl leaves Theta Hall for the last time, she passes on to a new girl a sacred thought, the Theta motto: Si Deus nobiscum, Quis contra nos!

Alpha Sigma opened the college year at the annual Y. M. C. A. Pow-Wow with several speeches of welcome and introduction for the benefit of the new men. Throughout the year, the society continued the activities, accomplishments, and ideals which have made it so prominent both in and out of the society hall since it was founded in 1882. Above all, Alpha Sigma is known by the wonderful fellowship which has won such a lasting place for it in the lives of its members.

The school year saw many enthusiastic and popular programs presented in Alpha Sigma meetings. Several joint meetings with Theta Epsilon proved to be the best-attended of all. On February 20, an entertaining radio program was presented for the whole school through the cooperation of these two groups.

"Arsenic and Old Lace" was this year's mid-winter dramatic production, and was given in the Chapel on March 19. A rollicking comedy, the production was acclaimed as one of the best of Alpha Sigma's many good dramatic presentations.

In athletics, Alpha Sigma members won distinction in all varsity competition. The society's intramural teams were highly regarded in every sport, and the basketball team came out with the College championship. Alpha Sigma was the defending College champion this year, having won the gold plaque award of the Intramural Department last year.

We wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to some of those who have cooperated in making this 1943 "Chilhowean" possible. Many of the pictures in the athletic and features sections were taken by Robert Calvesbert, for three years a staff photographer on the "Chilhowean." Were it not for his capable photography and expert finishing work, many of the pictures in this book could never have been obtained.

To Mr. John T. Benson goes credit for most of the pictures in the introductory sections and for most of the layouts of the book; to Dr. John H. Stellwagen goes credit for the class sponsor and campus queen pictures. We also wish to thank Dr. F. A. Griffitts, Mr. James R. Smith, and the members of the junior class for their cooperation.

THE COLLEGE MAID SHOP

In the basement of Thaw Hall there exists a thriving business, the College Maid Shop, which has for twenty-three years been sewing for nurses, choirs, mill workers, and other people using robes and uniforms. At the present, almost the entire output of the Maid Shop is going to nurses and other persons engaged directly in the war effort.

The Maid Shop was started by Mrs. Kathryn McMurray, at that time a member of the Home Economics faculty. The enterprise started with twelve machines, but has grown to include the entire basement floor of Thaw Hall, the campus' largest building. The establishment contains almost $25,000 worth of stock, realizes a profit of over $2,000 per year. Above all, the Maid Shop provides part-time employment for dozens of Maryville College students, which was its original purpose for existing.

MRS. KATHRYN McMURRAY
Manager of the College Maid Shop

Because of the flood of orders being received from government nurses, the shop has discontinued all other types of work for the duration. Within the past year, packages have gone out to Pearl Harbor, the U. S. Naval Air Station at Jacksonville, Florida, the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, both of the United States hospital ships, the U. S. S. Solace and the U. S. S. Relief, and many thousands of nurses. The shop turns out over 600 letters and 500 packages each month, and employs about 100 girls who sew as much as their schedule allows and their needs demand. In addition, several persons are employed for full-time jobs.

THE COLLEGE MAID SHOP

The College Maid Shop has not always been so prosperous as it is today, and there have been many times when it appeared that it would close. The story of the organization is a story of courage, perseverance, and faith in an ideal. The first two years of operation ended with the Maid Shop in debt $10,000, but through the untiring efforts of Mrs. McMurray it continues its work of helping girls "work their way through Maryville College."

And the thousands of nurses in government service, the thousands of mill workers who insist on "College Maid" custom-fitted uniforms attest to the success of the Shop as a business enterprise. Indeed, it has been said that the good will behind the trade-mark "College Maid" is worth many thousands of dollars in business circles.

This fraternity was organized and functions with the intent to increase interest, stimulate creativeness, and foster artistic achievement in all the allied arts and crafts of the theatre. All members are engaged actively in practicing or teaching subjects related to the theatrical field, and are elected because of outstanding achievement in this work.

Theta Alpha Phi members this year took leading roles in both mid-winter presentations, and in productions of the College Players and Experimental Theatre. At the meetings of the group, various plays were reviewed, and a play study group was conducted, with the presentation of "The Moon Is Down," by Mrs. Nita Eckles West.

Glenn Winkle

The Maryville College Choir, under the direction of Mr. Richard W. Vine, is composed of forty-eight students and is generally recognized as one of the outstanding Choral groups in the South. It is heard each Sunday evening at the Chapel Vesper Service, every morning at Chapel, in the College woods for the Easter Sunrise service, from time to time over the radio, and at many special occasions throughout the year. The Choir also took a leading part in the production of "The Messiah" at Christmas time, and five members—Frances Harris, Sibyl Tallent, Marcia Keirn, Rebecca Jones, and Jack Lippard—took solo parts.

There are ten senior members of the Choir this year, and their loss will be keenly felt. They are Marion Avakian, Marjorie Gugger, Donald Hopkins, Rebecca Jones, Hal Lloyd, Barbara Lorentz, Ralph Parvin, Fred Smith, Jimmy Walker, and Glenn Winkle.

The underclass members of the Choir are, however, a very talented and promising nucleus around which next year's Choir can be built. Membership can be attained only by passing a very rigid tryout, and punctual attendance is required at all practices and appearances.

The Twirlers.

THE BAND

The band this year was composed of about fifty members, under the direction of Mr. Richard W. Vine. It played at all football games, and at the Easter Sunrise Service held annually in the College woods.

Ted Kidder was band captain this year, and Nelson Ernest was drum major. Miss Alice Matthews was band sponsor, and the twirlers were Polly Park, Evelyn Whitehead, and Mable Marshall.

Each spring a band concert is held, and the group makes various other appearances on special occasions.

THE MESSIAH

Handel's beloved oratorio, "The Messiah," was given again this year at Christmas for the tenth consecutive time. With the combined glee clubs and Choir forming the nucleus, a chorus of over two hundred college students, faculty members, and town people took part in the presentation. Mr. Richard W. Vine was the director, Miss Katherine Davies was at the organ, Miss Garnet Manges at the piano, and the Maryville College Symphony Orchestra accompanied the chorus.

The soloists for this year's presentation were: Jack Lippard, tenor; Dean Stiles, bass; Marcia Keirn, Ruth Cathcart, and Sibyl Tallent, soprano; and Rebecca Jones and Frances Harris, alto.

MARYVILLE COLLEGE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The Maryville College Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Richard W. Vine, was this year composed of about thirty members. The Orchestra meets twice weekly for practice. Its public appearances included this year the tenth annual presentation of "The Messiah." Miss Dorothy Horne is concert master of the Orchestra.

Maryville's fighting Scottie eleven was unable to schedule its traditional grid rivals for the 1942 season, due to the fact that most of them have suspended football for the duration of the war. The card was played out against an array of brawnier and better-paid gridders, with the result that the Highlanders built lots of character but won few football games.

HIGHLIGHTS

The Scotties didn't know about the rest of the season as they opened against Hiwassee, and came out with an impressive 33-0 win. The second game was played at Newberry, S. C., and although they put up a scrappy fight, the Scots were beaten by travel-weariness and superior numbers. The score: 7-25.

The Chattanooga machine rolled unmercifully over our out-classed heroes 7-51. Milligan had to fight for its 0-19 win on Wilson Field the next week, and Hiwassee gave us our second and final win by a 32-13 count.

Murfreesboro won 12-19 on a wet Middle Tennessee gridiron, Applachian State embarrassed the Scots 7-20 before a homecoming crowd, and Morehead put the lid on the dismal season by a 6-18 count.

The 1943 Scotties.

The Maryville wrestling team maintained its perennial leadership in Tennessee this year, and although there were not enough other schools in the competition to wage a State Title race, the Scotties compared in every way with their many championship predecessors.

Woody Everett, a former mat star for the Scots, was the new coach this season, taking over from J. A. Davis, who was called to military service. Woody proved to be a very capable tutor, following in the footsteps of Davis and the late Coach Bob Thrower, who established Maryville in its high wrestling position.

The Highlanders opened the season with a thrilling, nip-and-tuck match against Appalachian State Teachers. The visitors took an early lead, but Captain Joe Suitor, Mack Wilson, and Ed Wilson staged a brilliant finish, gaining three successive pins and giving Maryville a last-minute victory.

The second match of the year was against the Georgia Tech Engineers, and Maryville turned back the Ramblin' Wreck by a decisive 28-8 score. In the next match, a crippled Maryville team lost—for the first time in years—to the University of Tennessee. The score in this dismal debacle was 21-13.

The next week Maryville invaded the Vol lair, and won a 23-13 grudge battle to give them an even break for the season. Stars of this important win were Captain Suitor, Lloyd Anderson, Bill Thompson, and Mac Wilson.

The season ended in a road trip for Maryville, including successful matches against Georgia Tech and the Georgia Pre-Flight team at Athens, Georgia.

One of the most brilliant wrestlers in Maryville mat history, Captain Joe Suitor ended his career for the Orange and Garnet by scoring a pin in every match. Lloyd Anderson, sophomore 175-pounder, and Bill Thompson, freshman star, also had unblemished records. Mac and Ed Wilson, heavyweights, were outstanding, as was 121-pounder Trevor Williams, 128-pounder Frank Bradford, and 145-pounder Gordon Rettke. Les Rock, wrestling his first season, scored a five-point victory over U. T. to earn his letter. Ed Ballinger, Chuck Dunning, Jim Yunker, Bob Schwartzwalder, and Louie Zimmerman complete the list of those who saw inter-collegiate competition.

The 1942 baseball team was one of the best squads Coach Honaker has put on the diamond in recent years, winning nine out of thirteen games played. The Scotties defeated the vaunted U. T. Vols twice, beat Hiwassee twice in three games, split even with L. M. U. in a twin bill, split with T. P. I., trounced Murfreesboro twice, and broke even with the hated Carson-Newman Eagles.

The scoring power of the Orange and Garnet was led by big "Mac" McGaha, big outfielder, whose booming bat drove many tallies across the plate. Fred (Spo't) Shelfer, veteran receiver, and mainstay hurlers Norman Hooker and Paul Sieber were the other seniors on the squad.

Juniors Lloyd Taylor, Les Rock, and Aggie Miller also won letters. A quartet of frosh athletes broke into the lineup and played good ball, in the persons of Ross Honaker, Allan Rock, Don Conkle, and Gordon Webb.

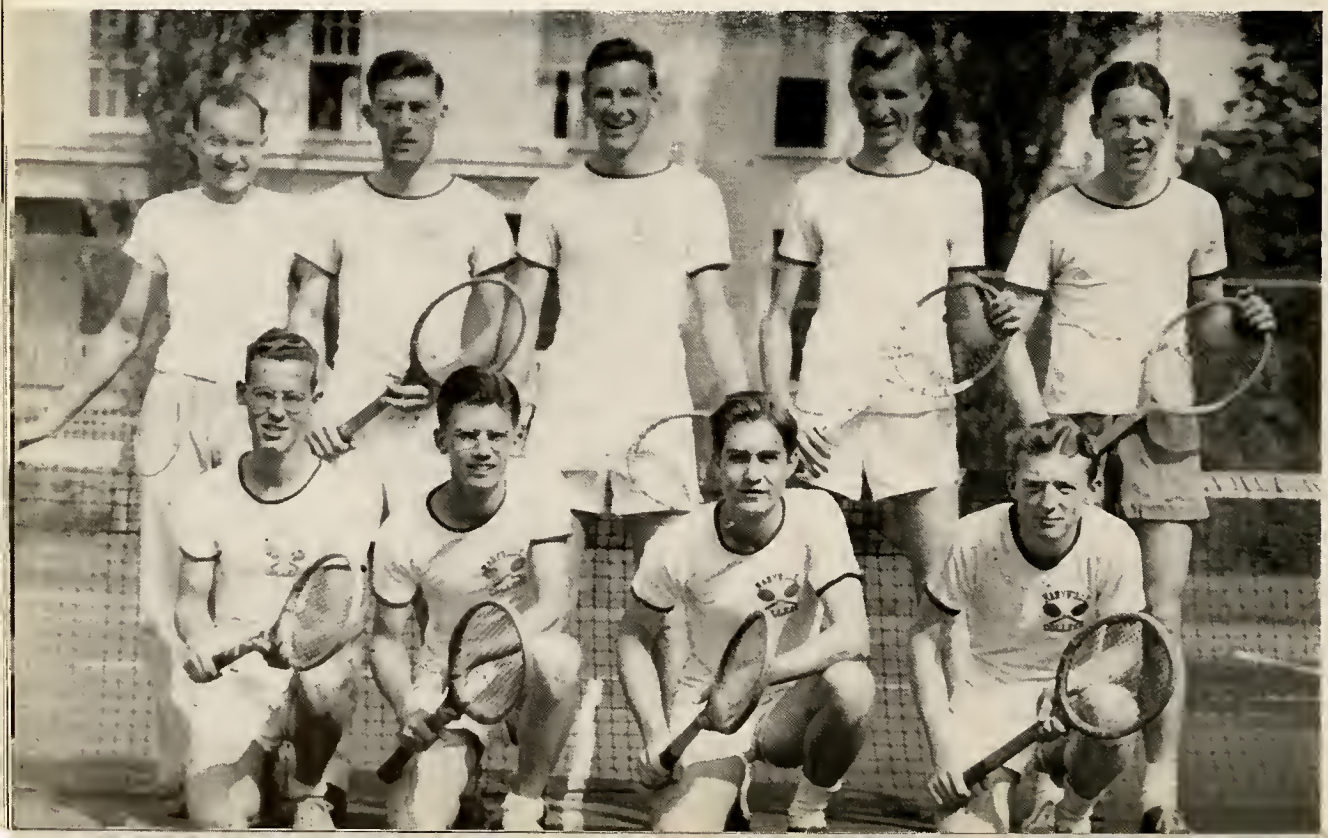
CHEER LEADERS

Appearing at every athletic contest this year were the cheer leaders, providing plenty of encouragement and inspiration for the Scotties on the field. The squad was composed of Bill Sweeney, captain; Ellen Pascoe, Meredith Preston, Jean Huddleston, Les Boyd, and Charles Hanford.

TENNIS TEAM

The 1942 tennis squad won five of its eight contests, defeating such teams as Carson-Newman, East Tennessee Teachers, L. M. U., T. P. I. The only losses were in two close matches with the University of Tennessee, both of which ended in a 3-4 score. The second Carson-Newman match ended in a tie.

The lettermen were Ted Kidder, Oliver Van Cise, Ted Pratt, Ken Cooper, Hal Lloyd, Bob Hunter, and Dave Kidder.



Mrs. Evelyn Norton Queener, as instructor in physical education for women, is in full charge of the entire Point System. She was assisted this year by Willie Williams and Becky Jones in working out all the plans for the year, supervising the games, appointing officials, and keeping the records of all the girls' points and achievements.

POINT SYSTEM GIRLS

Girls engaged in Point System athletics participated in various activities. Those earning sufficient points during the year are awarded letter sweaters and are admitted to membership in the "M" Club. They have no easy time in earning their M's and sweaters, for the program is both diverse and strenuous.

Among the types of athletics participated in are soccer, basketball, baseball, volley ball, aerial darts, swimming, and track throughout the entire year. Every girl must walk the seven-mile loop twelve times during the year, swim twice a month, and spend an hour in exercise daily. If she wishes to earn an M award, she must also obey certain health rules throughout the school year.

With the increased emphasis this year on physical education training, a large number of girls participated in the program enthusiastically, and several were given letters and sweaters at the end of the year.

WAAC's

For athletic competition this year, the girls were divided into two groups for the team sports. These took the names of the women's auxiliary military services, and engaged in plenty of heated competition during the year.

INTRAMURAL ATHLETICS

The Intramural Staff.

1942-43

In the school year of 1942-43, intramural athletics have become a major part of the college's extra-curricular activity. The staff, directed by Coach George Fischback the first semester and by Coach Lombe Honaker the second semester, has planned and directed tournaments in nearly all major indoor and outdoor sports in cooperation with the college's physical training emphasis and with the necessary discontinuance of much of the intercollegiate competition.

This year's senior manager during the first semester was Oliver Van Cise; during the second semester he was Hal Lloyd. Pictured above is the entire intramural staff for 1942-43.

The year's program for 1941-42, completed last spring, saw twenty athletic tournaments held in twelve different sports, in which 80.1 per cent of the men on the campus participated. Participation for this year has reached nearly 100 per cent.
